

Kid's Taking Charge ~ Plan It!

Listen to the podcast first here Kids Taking Charge on VintageHomeschoolMoms.com

Then you can use this planner and you can add more information as you start to take charge of your life!

You can make a difference. Believe it! Here is how you get started...

Let's stop and make a list of the things most kids are responsible for no matter what your age:

1.
2.
3.
4.

Other responsibilities:

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.

9.
10.

Now, the next step is to answer the following question:

Are you a now or later person?

This means - do you do things immediately when you are assigned a job or you know what it is you are supposed to do - maybe your family uses a chore chart or some other method of keeping track. OR - are you a later person, in "I'll do that later."

1. Now person and here is why:
2. Later person and here is why:

What can you accomplish (or finish) that makes you feel good about your day?
Make a list.

God believes in you. I believe in you. Your parents believe in you. Your grandparents believe in you. You are special and wonderful and God has an amazing plan for your life.

So the questions to think about and circle the answer that best answers the question for you.

1. Are you ready to take charge of your life?	Yes	No
2. Are you ready to be the best that you can be?	Yes	No
3. Are you ready to be the best that God wants you to be?	Yes	No
4. How are you going to do this?	Yes	No

The challenge is to take the next few days to think about this, talk to your parents about this or talk about it in a family meeting.

Decide on one tiny thing you will do to improve. Write it down.

The next day decide on another thing you will improve and practice what you did the day before!

And guess what? Before you know it you will take charge of your life!

I'm so excited for you and the great things you will do, the time you will have to do the things you enjoy and to see you become the best you can be!
